CADS Module Assignment I

- Module 1 (Conceptual Framework to Classism) – students will incorporate data science instruction to introduce students to using SPSS. This project will require students to identify an essay in the assigned text, associate one of the 2 data sets, briefly analyze, and submit a 3-page summation (including basic graph/table tools).
- This introductory assignment will focus on basic statistical analyses incorporating lectures that align social justice movements to supportive data sciences.